Extract from The Hull Packet and Original Weekly Commercial, Literary and General Advertiser of 3rd Nov 1818 gave some account

"On Saturday se'nnight, at night, as Mr Townsend, a gentleman engaged in the Eau Brink Drainage, was returning home from Peterbrough Market, he was accidentally thrown from his horse near Whittlesea and, melancholy to relate, killed on the spot."

Hilda Mary GOLDSMITH was born 4 Jan 1914, in Ipswich, Suffolk, died 11 May 1977, in Ipswich Suffolk. Charles was born in King's Norton (Birmingham) on 4th October, 1907. He was the youngest of three children of John Holt Thomas and Elizabeth Richardson both of whom were descended from old Yorkshire families.

Fairly shortly after his birth the family moved to Ipswich - John Holt Thomas was an engineering draughtsman and was heavily involved with the manufacture of agricultural machinery from around 1910 to his retirement just before the Second World War.

Charles went to Ipswich School and qualified as a Chartered Accountant in Ipswich. After qualifying he worked for the rest of his career with the local newspaper group (East Anglian Daily Times) as Company Secretary and latterly as a Director and the General Manager.

Charles' over-riding hobby was sailing. In the 1950s he shared an ocean racer (Brambling) with his brother-in-law who was reputed to be the best helmsman on the East Coast. They won many honours in off-shore races and they used to visit Holland and Belgium several times each year. Later when his brother-in-law died Charles built his own yacht and the family spent many a happy holiday cruising the East Coast - unfortunately cut short by his relatively early death at the age of 60 in 1968. Hilda Mary Goldsmith was born in Ipswich on 4th January, 1914 the elder daughter of Richard George Goldsmith and Dora Catherine Rose Ward. Richard was the secretary for the Foxhall Sanatorium in Ipswich.

Hilda lived all her life in Ipswich. As a girl she lived with her family in the grounds of the Sanatorium and she went to the Convent School. After leaving school she trained as a secretary and later worked at the local newspaper the East Anglian Daily Times where she met her future husband Charles Holt Thomas (who was the Company Secretary and later a Director of the newspaper company). Charles and Hilda were married on 20th February, 1943 at All Saints Church Kesgrave (near Ipswich and the Parish Church for the sanatorium where Hilda was still living at the time.
