She married Charles Holt THOMAS. He was the son of John Holt THOMAS and Elizabeth RICHARDSON. Charles Holt THOMAS was b. 4 Oct 1907, in Harbourne, King's Norton, Birmingham,<sup>103</sup> d. 20 Jul 1968, in Ipswich and East Suffolk Hospital, Ipswich, Suffolk.<sup>104</sup> Occupation: Chartered Accountant - Director of East Anglian Daily Times.

Hilda Mary Goldsmith was born in Ipswich on 4th January, 1914 the elder daughter of Richard George Goldsmith and Dora Catherine Rose Ward.

Hilda lived all her life in Ipswich. As a girl she lived with her family in the grounds of the Sanatorium and she went to the Convent School. After leaving school she trained as a secretary and later worked at the local newspaper the East Anglian Daily Times where she met her future husband Charles Holt Thomas (who was the Company Secretary and later a Director of the newspaper company). Charles and Hilda were married on 20th February, 1943 at All Saints Church Kesgrave (near Ipswich and the Parish Church for the sanatorium where Hilda was still living at the time.

Charles was born in King's Norton (Birmingham) on 4th October, 1907. He was the youngest of three children of John Holt Thomas and Elizabeth Richardson both of whom were descended from old Yorkshire families.

Fairly shortly after his birth the family moved to Ipswich - John Holt Thomas was an engineering draughtsman and was heavily involved with the manufacture of agricultural machinery from around 1910 to his retirement just before the Second World War.

Charles went to Ipswich School and qualified as a Chartered Accountant in Ipswich. After qualifying he worked for the rest of his career with the local newspaper group as Company Secretary and latterly as a Director and the General Manager.

Charles' over-riding hobby was sailing. In the 1950s he shared an ocean racer with his brother-in-law who was reputed to be the best helmsman on the East Coast. They won many honours in off-shore races and they used to visit Holland and Belgium several times each year. Later when his brother-in-law died Charles built his own yacht and we spent many a happy holiday on it as a family - unfortunately cut short by his relatively early death at the age of 60 in 1968.

Children of Hilda Mary GOLDSMITH and Charles Holt THOMAS:

- 14     i.   John Richard Holt THOMAS

After leaving the local Convent School Marjorie worked for Barclays Bank in Ipswich where she met her future husband Reginald Webb. Uncle Reg had the distinction (at least how my brother and I saw it) that he only had one eye - the other being lost as a result of an unfortunate encounter with a hand grenade.

Reg and Marjorie lived in a good many different houses during their married lives but remained in or around Suffolk/Essex until finally moving to Worthing (Sussex) where both Reg and Marjorie eventually died.
